The National Era is a weekly newspaper, levoted to Literature and Politice. In Literature, it sims to unite the Beautiful with the True, and to make both immediately ubservient to the practical purposes of every-

In Politics, it advocates the Rights of Man, and the Equality of Rights, and opposes whatever violates or tends to violate them, whether this be Involuntary Personal Servitude, Civil Despotism, Spiritual Absolutism, Class Legislation, the Seifshness of Capital, the Tyranny of Combination, the Oppression of a Majority, or the Exactions of Party.

It holds no fellowship with the Whig and Democratic organizations, believing that the main issues on which they have been arrayed against each other are obsolete or settled, and that they are now chiefly used by the Sectional Interest of Slavery, to impair the love of Liberty natural to the American mind, and to subjugate the American People to its rule. enlarged by the addition of four columns. We have neglected no means that could promise to make it an agreeable companion for the Household, and an efficient co-adjutor to the enlighted Politician. It has secured able correspondents at home and abroad, and no journal in the country can surpass the Era as it respects contributors to its Literary Department.

The Era publishes condensed reports of the proceedings of Congress, explains movements in that body, the causes of which do not always lie upon the surface, and from its position is enabled to keep a constant watch upon the action of the Federal Government in relation to all questions at issue between Liberty and Slavery.

The 52 Plates a year will alone be worth the price of subscription.

This work is made up of the elaborate and stately eneasys of the Edinburgh, Quarterly, and other Reviews; and Blackwood's noble criticisms on poetry, his keen political commentaries, highly wrought tales, and vipid descriptions of rural and mountain scenery; and the contributions to literature, history, and common life, by the sagacious Spectator, the sparkling Examiner, the judicious Athenaum, the busy and industrious Literary Guzette, the sensible and comprehensive Britannia, the sober and respectable Christian Observer; these are intermixed with the military and naval reminiscences of the United Service, and with the best articles of the Dublin University, New Monthly, Fraser's, Tait's, Ainsworth's, Hood's, and Sporting Magazines, and of Chambers admirable Journal. We do not consider it beneath our dignity to borrew wit and wisdom from Panch, and, when we think it good enough, make use of the thunder of The Times. We shall increase our variety by importations from the continent of Europe, and from the new growth of the British colonies.

THE LIVING AGE is published every Saturday, by LITTELL, SON, & COMPANY, corner of Tremont and Bromfield streets, Boston. Price 124 cents a number, or six dollars a year in advance. Remit tances for any period will be thankfully received and promptly attended to.

POSTAGE FREE.

We will send the Living Age, postage free, to all subscribers within the United States who remit in advance, directly to the office of publication, the sum of six dollars; thus placing our distant subscribers on the same footing as those nearer to us, and making the whole country our neighborhood.

Uncle Tom Eclipsed by the Lamplighter ! THE most extraordinary and Thrilling Tale of modern times. This is the universal testimony of the Newspaper Press, and the verdict of the Reading Public. We have been utterly unable to fill our orders, so great has been the demand far this GREAT AMERICAN ROMANCE. The following are samples of the opinions of the lorps Editorial: We have no hesitation in pronouncing The Lamp-lighter one of the most original, interesting, graphic, and affecting tales, that has intely appeared. We predict for it a saic and popularity equal to the most successful of modern remances.—Darly Ecs. Travel-ter, Boston.

For delicate and forcible delineation of character this work is bardly excelled —Boston Journal.

The Lamplighter will shed many a ray around firesides and in hearths where now it may be there is much of darkness and deriair — Daily Bee, Boston.

much of darkness and deepair — Davity Bee, Boston.

The life of Little Gerty, as portrayed in the Lamplighter, is as deeply affecting as the best sketches of Dickens. Few persons having commenced this work will be wilding to put it aside until they have gone through. The author, whoever she may be, has no reason to withhold her name, as the book would do credit to any writer.—Davity Advertiser, Boston.

The Lamplighter teaches important truths, which cannot be too frequently impressed upon the minds of all; and no one can study its instructive and fascinating pages, without being made better by its kindly influences. Its author has evidently a highly cultivated and refined, as well as an original and imaginative mind, and writes with the esse, the classical correctness of diction, and that choice selection of terms, whick indicate the good English scholar. In this respect, the Lamplighter is much superior to Uncle Tom's Cabin, whose inelegances meet us at every turn.—Boston Davity Atlass.
